A Sensible Prescription.
You ask me why I inquired your address when writing out the prescription for your cough. The reason will at once be simply this: There have been too cases of immovable lungs where lives might have been saved had the number of the residence of the party for whom the prescription was put up been known to the druggist. For, as we all know, mistakes are made even in the most reliable drug stores through the carelessness of clerks. Not long ago a druggist found, on returning from supper, that a bottle of strychnine was on the counter,
and asked the reason why.

The clerk replied that he had just been putting up a prescription, and was worried when he found that he had made use of strychnine instead of some less harmful drug mentioned in the prescription. The frightened young fellow did not even know the name of the person who had come for it, or for whom it was intended, and after hours of search he was unable to find the name of the patient to whom it was intended, and he was forced to throw it away. This is a sad case, but too late, for the first dose had killed him. That is why I place the name of the patient both on the prescription for the druggist and on the stub left in my prescription book.—Interview in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Bit of Gossip.
It is quite amusing to compare the opinions of men and women concerning the personal appearance of Mrs. Leslie Carter. Men generally agree in calling her strikingly handsome, both in figure and feature. Women consider her too tall, and declare that her mouth is also too large to be a lady's mouth. They were enthusiastic over Mrs. Langtry and Mrs. Potter. Mrs. Carter certainly has a large mouth, but she has a beautiful set of teeth. Her hair is of the golden brown which is the delight and admiration of artists. That she is a woman of intellect than either of the other actresses is discernible at a glance, and when she speaks this impression is greatly intensified. She doesn't attempt to speak in a high, shrill, or shrill voice, but she speaks in a low, sweet, and simple. She therefore seldom attracts more attention from strangers than any well-dressed New York society woman.
This sense of them can never forgive, as they consider that actresses and literary women are to be stared at and commented upon.—New York World.

Making Butter in a Bottle.
I recollect a little better which I once made, as seemingly the first and last occasion of my ever eating any, so good did it seem. An officer made me a miniature chum with a bottle and a little wooden dash put through a cork.

We were at the time marching every day further and further into the wilderness, but occasionally came to a ranch
where some venturesome frontiersman had established himself. Of course our people galloped out in advance, and soon brought out the madame. There was a little cream among other things, and as I sat under the tent after we made camp it was soon transferred into butter in the toy chum.—Mrs. Custer's Book.

The Seaside Tot.
Here is a veritable sea yarn of a lovely little 4-year-old girl. She was on board a steamer, the sea was high and the vessel rolled a good deal. "Mamma" was sick, brother and sister were sick, the poor nurse was thoroughly nauseated,
and the 4-year-old did not feel well herself. She did not know why it was, but she persisted in walking, and she made the nurse walk, holding her hand until she was ready to drop. Finally the disgusted little one cried out, "Oh, Letty,
let's go!" "Go where, my dear?" "Oh, go somewhere. I don't care where, if there is only a pavement!"—Buffalo Commercial.

The Difference between Knowing how the getting up of public meetings. The expert, on the other hand, has all the points covered, and makes the thing go off with a snap.

In the United States the speed of trains
varies so much on different railways,

that it is practically impossible to strike an average. Thirty to forty miles an hour is regarded as a very good rate, but a speed of from sixty to seventy-five miles an hour is often attained by fast
trains under special circumstances.

SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE.

H. H. GRANICE, EDITOR.
SONOMA, MARCH 11, 1891.

The "Life of General Sherman."

The enterprising Pacific Publishing Co., of Portland and San Francisco, are again to the front. This time it is with the "Life of General Sherman," written by the deceased general's fellow-warrior and bosom friend, Major General Howard, assisted by that most popular of all biographers, W. Fletcher Johnson, Author of "The Johnstown Flood and the Life of Sitting Bull and the Indian War," also brought out on this Coast by the Pacific Publishing Co. A grateful nation is at all times ready to honor the memory of her brave sons who, during life have followed the Stars and Stripes upon the glory field of battle; and this is particularly the case with the last of the great War Heroes who has just been summoned by the grim call of death to throw off this mortal coil, full of years; full of honor; full of glory; full of love, affection and gratitude of his fellow citizens; full of everything, indeed, that goes to ensure an enviable immortality to the memory of the departed.

This beautiful work, just issued by our friends, the Pacific Publishing Co., will be no mean factor in keeping green for many years to come the story of the late general's early life, his great war record at Bull Run, at Shiloh, at Memphis, at Vicksburg, at Chattanooga, at Knoxville, at Missionary Ridge, at Atlanta, and last, but very far from the least, that glorious and immortal "March to the Sea," the general's military and military grandeur of which has probably never been surpassed in the annals of warfare. All these matters are most graphically and vividly dealt with by the able authors; and when it is remembered that General Howard has, with the consent of the late general's family, had access to all the private diaries and correspondence of General Sherman for the purpose of enabling him to do justice to the subject he had taken in hand, there can be no doubt but that the book under notice is an authentic and reliable biography of the deceased soldier. It is illustrated by portraits, battle scenes, etc., from end to end. The steel plate engraving of the late General, from a photograph taken just before his last illness in his general's uniform, is a very fine likeness, and a masterpiece of the engraver's art.

The book should find its way into every patriotic home in the country. See the publishers' advertisement in another column.

Good Advice.

Several years ago I was covered with Boils to such an extent that my life was a misery. After trying a number of other remedies without any benefit I was advised by a wholesale druggist at Columbus to try S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). One bottle of S. S. S. cured me entirely. I have not had a boil since. To those afflicted with Boils or Skin Eruptions I give the same advice my wholesale druggist gave me—take S. S. S.

Ah How, alias Hi Lo, after being acquitted of the murder of Marian Patrick, took the cars at Santa Rosa for San Francisco as he feared violence should be returned to Sonoma. We think his fears groundless, as the prejudice against him which existed immediately after the killing of Patrick has been gradually dying out. At the present time he would be as safe in Sonoma as anywhere else.

John Sabella, a Greek fisherman, was murdered near the mouth of Petaluma creek in the vicinity of the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway Company's drawbridge one day last week, and his body sunk in the creek. His murderer, G. Zolezza was also a fisherman, and it is supposed they became engaged in an altercation and in a fit of passion Zolezza killed his victim with an axe, as the murdered man had seven deep gashes in the back of his head. The murder was brought to light last Saturday by the finding of the remains by two Italian fishermen, who brought the body to the surface in a fishing net in which it became entangled. The body was conveyed to San Francisco, but was subsequently turned over to Coroner Blaney, who held an inquest on the remains in Santa Rosa last Tuesday. The jury charged Zolezza with murder and he is now in the county jail.

NEW MASONIC HALL.

The Finest in the County—Its Elegant Furnishings.

A Brief Sketch of Temple Lodge, No. 14—Its Membership.

The new hall of Temple Lodge, No. 14, F. and A. M., recently completed is one of the finest, inside and outside, north of San Francisco. The building is located on one of the most prominent corners of Sonoma. The lower part of the edifice is owned and occupied by the Sonoma Valley Bank, while the entire upper part is the property of Temple Lodge. The exterior of the hall is of massive brick and modern finish. It is painted a handsome red and embellished with trimmings in two colors and mysterious Masonic emblems. It is lighted in the day time by six immense plate glass windows, and has a front and rear entrance. The former is on Napa street, the door being of solid black walnut. On the bow transom is inscribed "Masonic Hall," in gilt and blue letters. The interior of the hall which is 26x70 feet, is in keeping with the outside finish. The furniture and stationary wardrobes are of solid oak. The frames of the three high or large lodge chairs were bought in Chicago and were upholstered by L. Litzius, a member of the lodge. The carpets, drapery and upholstery are both costly and beautiful, and set off the large hall to advantage.

Among the notable furnishings of the hall are two immense pillars, surmounted with large globes, used and exemplified in the Second Degree. These were a gift from Yount Lodge, No. 12, Napa. The cost of the hall and furnishing the same was $5,000. The Trustees having the building and furnishing of the hall in charge were Robt. Poppe, Jesse Burris and W. C. Goodman. Temple Lodge, No. 14, was instituted May 6, 1851, the charter members being James R. Long, J. Hendley, Martin E. Rector, Stephen Akers, Geo. Stoneham, Jesse Davison, Wm. Burris and Ballo Hicklin. These were the pioneers of Masonry in Sonoma county. The Geo. Stoneham mentioned above is none other than the renowned Gen. Geo. H. Stoneham of Civil War fame and later on Governor of this State. Of the eight charter members but one still remains a member of the Lodge and that is Stephen Akers of Shellville, who is a hale and hearty old gentleman seventy-six years of age. The original lodge room of Temple Lodge, located in an upper story of an adobe building on the corner of Spain and Second-street, East, still stands and upon the dust-begrimed floor and cob-webbed walls can be seen to this day the mysterious painted emblems of the order, time and decay having failed to completely obliterate them. In this ancient lodge room were wont to meet in the early fifties some of the most notable men in the history of our country, many of whom have passed from the scenes of this earth.

At the present time Temple Lodge is in a most prosperous condition and numbers among its members many respected citizens of Sonoma and vicinity. The following is its present membership: Stephen Akers, Wm. Behler, Mont. Akers, W. C. Goodman, L. Litzius, R. D. Moore, Wm. E. McConnell, Joshua Chauvet, E. P. Cutter, C. McHarvey, L. M. Johansen, P. H. Thompson, P. L. McGill, P. H. Stofen, E. P. Sawtell, Wm. Seary, G. W. Sparks, E. Hart, S. Shockey, Chas. Spencer, R. A. Poppe, J. A. Box, G. Garbarin, H. Weyl, S. H. Shaw, J. T. Peters, O. B. Shaw, J. Burris, F. R. Corbally, D. Callaway, Wm. Still, F. L. Clark, W. L. Geary, G. S. Harris, Geo. Spencer, H. H. Davis, Jas. Burns, R. P. Hill, W. G. Corbally, J. J. King, W. L. Crooks.

The new hall will be dedicated on the 9th of next month with appropriate ceremonies, which will be participated in by the officers of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons.

Mrs. General Vallejo's Will.
The will of Mrs. General Vallejo was filed for probate in the Superior Court last Tuesday. The property of the estate is valued at $9,000 and consists of 164 acres of land in Sonoma Township, known as Lachryma Mortis. The homestead is bequeathed to the deceased's two daughters, Louisa, wife of R. de Emparan, and Maria, wife of J. H. Cutler. All the balance of the property is left to the other children, share and share alike: Andronica, Platon, Uladislaw, Napoleon and Epifania, wife of General Frisbie, Adele, wife of Dr. Frisbie, Natalia, widow of A. F. Haraszthy, Louisa, wife of R. de Emparan, and Maria, wife of J. H. Cutler.

RAMIE.

Meeting of Farmers Last Saturday to Discuss Its Cultivation.

A meeting of farmers was held in this place last Saturday afternoon to discuss the cultivation of ramie in Sonoma Valley. The assemblage was called to order by Prof. Wilkinson, after which B. F. Campbell was chosen Chairman and Robt. P. Hill, Secretary.

The meeting was first addressed by W. H. Murray, Secretary California Ramie Company, who explained the manner of growing ramie, obtaining the fibre, and gave some valuable statistics in this connection. He also made a proposition from the Company to furnish plants and to take the product from the growers at fixed rates.

W. B. Ewer, editor of the Pacific Rural Press, followed with an address giving a general description of ramie, its culture and uses.

Arnold Becker, a director of the California Ramie Company, also gave some information concerning the manner of propagating, growing and gathering ramie.

A letter from Prof. Hilgard of the State University, expressing regret at his inability to be present and strongly advocating the introduction of the culture of ramie, was read.

The following resolution was then read and upon motion adopted by the meeting:

WHEREAS, There is a bill now pending in the Legislature which has been introduced into both the Senate and Assembly, and which has been unanimously recommended by the Committees on Agriculture in both branches, awarding growers of ramie a bounty of one cent per pound of fibre

Resolved, By a meeting of farmers now being held in the City of Sonoma that it is the sense of said meeting that said bill should be put upon its final passage at the earliest practical opportunity.

A motion was made that the Chairman appoint a Committee of Three to consult with the farmers and also with the California Ramie Company in regard to this industry.

Upon the motion being carried, Messrs. Boyes, Hill and Glaister were appointed on the committee. After a few further remarks by Prof. Wilkinson and Capt. Boyes the meeting adjourned.

THE CITY TRUSTEES.

An Animated Meeting—Bills Ordered Paid—Other Matters.

The usual monthly meeting of the City Trustees was held Wednesday evening of last week. The meeting was characterized by a heated argument over the Plaza fund, which, however, culminated without bloodshed. The President finally succeeded in restoring order and the business of the Board proceeded without further incident of note.

After the usual monthly bills had been allowed and ordered paid Trustees Litzius moved that the Fire and Water Committee have exits made leading from the Plaza to Broadway and Napa streets for use in case of fire. So ordered.

No action was taken in the proffer of Jas. McMackin to haul dirt on First-street East and fill up the low place on that street opposite Grothaus' saloon, at little or no cost to the city.

It was ordered that $20.70 remaining over from collections for the right of way of railroad be expended on the Plaza.

The following bills were ordered paid:

J. G. Marey, fire hydrant, $33.50
J. L. McGill, street work, 15.00
Wm. Green, lumber, 97.00
Wm. Stone, labor, 11.00
J. P. Weems, street work, 20.00
G. W. Sparks, salary, 16.30
Lee Bulotti, labor, 22.00
J. E. Kearney, leveling Plaza, 40.00
Thos. Ellis, labor, 40.00
J. G. Marey, water pipe for Plaza, 22.00

The Board then adjourned.

Waincott vs. the Pickett Property.
In an action brought in the Superior Court of Sacramento county by F. S. Waincott against the Occidental Building and Loan Association of that city, the following citizens of Sonoma were subject to examination and their depositions taken by Notary Public Breitenbach one day this week: Eugene Young, G. S. Harris, W. B. Thomas, W. T. Bordwell, Henry Pickett and Wm. Pickett. This action is brought to set aside the sale of the Pickett property facing on Napa street in this place, fraud being alleged by plaintiff. The property was sold a few years ago when the "Boom" struck this valley to Waincott by the defendant association for $18,000, on the representation, it is alleged in the complaint, that it would net an annual income of $5,500 per year. This the property has failed to do. Hence the suit.

GLAISTER-WAGNER.

Marriage of Miss Blanche Glaister and Mr. Otto Wagner.

A very pretty wedding took place last Wednesday at Green Oaks, the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Glaister, the contracting couple being the only daughter of the house, Miss Blanche E. Glaister and Mr. Otto Wagner of the firm of F. Clewe & Co. of this place.

Promptly at noon the bridal party slowly advanced into the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march performed on the piano by Mrs. D. Duhring, and took up their position under a dainty canopy of smilax, from which depended a lovely marriage bell composed of peach and almond blossoms, and in the background were seen the letters G. and W. wrought in pretty flowers. On each side were tall vases filled with ferns and flowers.

Beneath the canopy stood the happy couple, and the ceremony which made them husband and wife was performed by the Rev. David H. Reid in a most impressive manner. The bride looked charming in a lovely costume of steel gray silk. Miss Minnie Cook acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Henry Hartin as best man. The ceremony over congratulations followed. The guests were then invited into the dining room which was also decorated with ivy, ferns and several handsome bouquets sent from Oakland and Alameda. After enjoying a delicious lunch and toasting the newly married couple's health, the friends returned to the parlor where they listened to some choice vocal and instrumental music rendered by Mrs. Duhring and Miss Reinsch.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner left amid showers of rice and old shoes on the Southern Pacific train en route to San Francisco at 3 p. m. Upon their return they will reside in their new home on Broadway.

Arbor Day.

Arlo Day was duly observed by the teachers and scholars of the Sonoma public school yesterday. Many handsome trees, plants and shrubs were contributed and planted by the teachers and pupils. It is to be hoped that the children will attend to and cultivate the particular trees and plants contributed by them. If this is done our school grounds will in the course of a few years be one of the attractions of the town. The principal of the school, Prof. Watson, is winning golden opinions from all for the great interest he has taken in everything that pertains to the advancement of our youth, and now that he has inaugurated the observance of Arbor Day, we trust that he will be successful in instilling into the minds of our boys and girls a love for the beautiful.

Sad Case of Insanity.

Mrs. A. Bacala was taken in custody by Constable Sparks last Thursday, on complaint of her husband, who charged her with being insane. She was taken to Santa Rosa yesterday to be examined before the Superior Court as to her sanity. The unfortunate woman, who has twice been an inmate of the Napa Asylum, has become very violent of late. She has a penchant for destroying household furniture, demolishing windows and assaulting her husband and children. The day before being taken into custody she bit one of her children in the arm and also viciously assaulted her husband.

BALLOTING for United States Senator still continues at Sacramento, with Estee in the lead and De Young a good second.

EVIDENTLY Assembly Bruner has got his foot in it in monkeying with that police business. Whether he was trying to catch the Examiner or that paper was scheming to land him, just the same he has got to get an almighty big wiggle on to free himself from suspicion.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mourner, weep no more for her! A radiant spirit on the eternal shore, Your loved one's trials are o'er.

Light, and joy and Heavenly rest, E'en now, with happy souls she shares, On the loving Savior's breast;

No more to endure this sad world's cares, An angel fair, forever blest.

Look up! spend not your time in weeping, Eternal fields you too may tread; Where God your loved one safe is keeping. In meadows bright with Heavenly dew, She, sorrowing one, now waits for you.

Spreading for Leases Around

The marshy, overgrown lands, sunken lots and half submerged river banks, which give them birth, the seeds of malaria impregnate the air, and are inhaled at every breath by thousands unprovided with any adequate safeguard against the baneful influence. Yet such exists—potent alike to remedy or to prevent, pure in its constituents, and the professionally recognized substitute for the baneful drug, quinine. Its name is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a family specific and safeguard, foremost not only as an antidote to malaria, but also as a means of permanently removing dyspepsia, and relieving constipation, liver complaint, rheumatism, kidney and bladder ailments, and nervousness. Among inveterate it takes the first place, and is also a superb appetizer. Use it systematically.
